

School of Design and Production
Family Weekend

Saturday, September 24, 2011

Design & Production will conduct a behind the scenes look at our shops and host a student panel to share with parents their experience of what it's like being a D&P student.

- 1:30 pm - 3:00 pm: Meet in front of the Costume Shop across from Performance Place where we will begin a behind the scenes tour of our Shops and discuss the build of a show. We are currently in production for our Fall productions: "A Lie of the Mind", "Innocent Thoughts, Harmless Intentions", "Streetcar Named Desire" and Emerging Choreographers.
- 3:00 pm The tour will conclude in Room 113 (Drawing Studio) where will be joined by a panel of D&P Students for a discussion about their experiences in the classroom and studios that help prepare them for a professional career in the performing arts.
- 4:00 pm The session will conclude with refreshments.
