  - E. Daryl Wade
    1. Have made progress on revising on SAA's Constitution; a new rough draft has been created
    2. Students desire to have the new revisions of the Constitution posted online

3. At most schools, the Student Government is involved in the judiciary process
  - a. We do not have that at this point, but will be working to change this in the future
  - b. Students used to serve on the hearing committee, but the student asked to be taken off and the position has not been reestablished
  - c. At UNCSCA the people on that committee are from different departments and drawn each time there is a hearing
  - d. Options for reestablishment of position/ Opinions
    1. One option: Ex. If a music student is involved in a hearing, a representative will be chosen from one of the other 4 art schools (pre-selected volunteers)
    2. Could choose representatives like a jury is chosen
    3. May not be a good idea, because we do not function like a larger university
    4. Volunteers may be better since they will be dedicated to participating on a hearing committee
    5. We will work on communicating these ideas to the rest of the student body
4. Still looking for a new Chief Academic Officer
  - a. Administration has been asking for students to have lunch with the candidates
  - b. The dates vary and the lunches usually occur at about 12pm or 12:20pm
  - c. Contact Daryl if you are interested in participating

III. New Business

- A. Introduction of ONYX
  - a. Work to do multi-media artistic projects on campus
  - b. Try to draw those that are interested in non-traditional work that is not generally produced through the art schools
  - c. Meetings are in the Fish Bowl by the cafeteria on Wednesdays at 6:30pm
  - d. Please contact Joe Morgan for more information

The meeting adjourned at 6:37pm.
