INVITE YOU TO a screening of

“WOMEN IN HOLLYWOOD”

Women in Hollywood showcases the women of showbiz, from the earliest pioneers to present-day power players, as they influence the creation of one of the country’s biggest commodities: entertainment. Audiences hear from actress-producer-activist Jane Fonda; television powerhouse Shonda Rhimes, who created Grey’s Anatomy and Scandal; screenwriter Linda Woolverton, who re-imagined the traditional Disney princess; writer-director-actress Lena Dunham, who mines comedy and drama gold by exploring what it’s really like to be a young woman today; and six-time Academy Award nominee Glenn Close.

DATE: Tuesday, October 28th

WHERE: Salem College, Huber Theatre, Student Center, 601 South Church Street, Winston-Salem

WHAT /WHEN:
7:00: Reception hosted by Salem College President Dr. D. E. Lorraine Sterritt in Huber Theatre lobby
8:00: Screening of 52 minute documentary, WOMEN IN HOLLYWOOD
9:00: Q & A with Susan Ruskin, Dean of Filmmaking, UNCSA and Lauren Vilchik, Producing Instructor

Parking: At the intersection of Salem Avenue and Rams Drive (formerly Stadium Drive), turn right into the Robert E. Elberson Fine Arts Center entrance and proceed to the bottom of the hill to park. Signs and volunteers will direct you to the theatre.

Questions: Please contact Jane McKim (jane@riverrunfilm.com).

Please join us for a lively informative evening! Seating is limited to 90 so get there early!

Women in Hollywood is part of the Makers, a six-part series addressing the evolution into the professional world on the part of women in America. RiverRun is a member of ITVS Community Cinema and the administrator of these films. For information on upcoming films in the ITVS series go to riverrunfilm.com or contact Jane McKim (email above).