YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO APPEAL THIS CHARGE AND OUTCOME TO THE OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT. You must appeal within three (3) calendar days of the decision. You are strongly encouraged to seek advice on this decision from someone you trust. That person will be in better position to advise you if you provide them with a copy of the UNCSA Academic Integrity Policy, which can be found here: <https://www.uncsa.edu/about/office-of-the-provost/handbooks/college-handbook/appendix-e.aspx>. While considering or pursuing an appeal, if you think you might consider continuing in the course if your appeal were successful, you should continue attending the class and meet class requirements. A student who has an alleged violation of the Academic Integrity Policy cannot withdraw from the course. Should a student withdraw from the class prior to the resolution of an allegation (i.e. at any point between submitting work to which the allegation pertains and the final resolution of the case) the mark of "W" will be considered temporary pending the final resolution of the case. If a student is found responsible for an academic integrity violation and receives a lower or failing grade in a course for violating the Academic Integrity Policy that course cannot be retroactively dropped.

Signature here does not constitute an admission of guilt. It means that the student has received this Notification.

Next Steps:

- 1. Faculty Member (Faculty member maintains copy with class records)
