

Your application was selected for review in a process called "Verification." In this process, information from your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) will be compared with copies of your and your spouse's 2017 IRS Tax Return Transcripts, or other financial documents. The law says that the Federal government can select you for this review before being awarded Federal aid. If there are differences between your FAFSA information and your financial documents, University of North Carolina School of the Arts (UNCSA) may need to send corrections electronically and have your information reprocessed.

You and your spouse must complete and sign this verification worksheet and return it to UNCSA as soon as possible (along with IRS Tax Return Transcripts or other documents requested), so that your financial aid won't be delayed. If you have any questions, please contact the UNCSA Office of Student Financial Aid at 336-770-3297. Note: UNCSA must review the requested information, under the financial aid program rules (34 CFR, Part 668).
