     o There is still much to discuss about it.
   • Council discussion followed.
   • MOTION that we charge our EPC representatives to engage in a departmental discussion with their faculty and also invite Dean Wilcox to Faculty Council to explain his rationale. MOTION APPROVED.

   • Carin Ioannou gave a detailed presentation about the three renovation projects that will be happening concurrently: Library Phase 3, Old Library Renovation, and Performance Place Renovation.
     o Information regarding all capital projects, including timelines can be found on the Board of Trustees Finance Committee webpage.

D. Faculty Rank – Greg Walter
• Faculty Rank Committee 2015-16 Annual Report distributed to Council.
• During 2015-16, FRC held 21 meetings during the school year and 15 meetings during the summer.
• Much time was devoted to revising online documents and Faculty Manual Sections 7 and 8. Review of online documents will continue this year as well.
• 2014-15: FRC reviewed 24 faculty dossiers and made 7 new-hire recommendations; 2015-16: FRC review 16 faculty dossiers and made 11 new-hire recommendations; 2016-17: 3 applications for rank promotion
• Because of some problems that arose to the FRC concerning the peer evaluation process at UNCSA, Dr. Ellen Rosenberg was able to invite Dr. David Teachout, the Director of the University Teaching and Learning Commons at UNC Greensboro, to present a program and workshop sessions at the UNCSA Faculty Enrichment Day. His expertise and ideas about active and effective teaching and peer evaluation of teaching led the FRC to believe that UNCSA’s Peer Evaluation structure should be a made major agenda item of UNCSA Faculty Council.
  o Council discussion followed.
  o Michael Rothkopf requested that Faculty Rank bring a proposal to Council regarding the Peer Evaluation structure and process.
• FRC will be looking at the possible ranking of adjunct faculty.

E. Faculty Welfare – Paul Sharpe
• A number of concerns were raised regarding issues affecting part-time faculty. The committee will be making an effort to define the concerns of part-time faculty, their compensation, work-load, and their impact on programs and course offerings.
• The transition from ING to VOYA life insurance policies have left several people with greatly reduced benefits. One member of our committee went from $100K to 20K with no notice. There is a concern that many faculty are not aware of these changes to their policies and we would encourage people to look. The FWC will be meeting with James Lucas in an upcoming meeting to address this and other concerns.
• Salary compression still exists amongst faculty on campus. FWC is inquiring about what is happening now to address this.
• There are lingering concerns over rank and contract renewal committees and the time that is asked of faculty to serve on these committees.

F. Faculty Assembly – Elizabeth Klaimon
• President Spellings met with Faculty Assembly to discuss strategic planning and her vision for the UNC system. She highlighted the five areas of the UNC Strategic Plan: Student Success; Affordability and Efficiency; Access; Economic Impact; and Excellent and Diverse Institutions.
• Spellings stressed her aim for transparency, and building trust and confidence within the UNC system and with the Legislature.
• Spellings indicated that the issue of faculty retention and recruitment, including salaries, is her number one priority.
• Spellings encouraged faculty to tell our story, especially at the local level.
• Other topics discussed by Faculty Assembly included Academic Program Planning, the status of the GEC Report, and recent NC legislations, including NC GAP, SB 873, and Lab Schools.
